The South Bahamas Conference of Seventh-day Adventists says congratulations to Pastor Green and the leaders and members of the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist Church on this your 91st Anniversary. Continue to be engaged in Fellowship, Evangelism, Discipleship, and Service.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

An Overview of the Formation and Existence of the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist Church

In 1919, some ninety-one (91) years ago, an Evangelist and Bible Worker named Sister Somelliann, a Native of Crooked Island, visited the island of San Salvador. After meeting with the people, engaged in Bible studies and by her own personal testimony, Brother Paul Ward and his household became the first converts to embrace the Sabbath Message Truth and in June 1919, himself along with nineteen (19) others were baptized.

With careful search of the scriptures and prayer, Bro. Paul Ward began giving Bible Studies to his neighbors and friends who also accepted the Bible truth. Among them were: Brother James T. Williams (Brother Jimmy), Brother Henry Williams (Boy Goose) and Brother Stanley Fernander.

It was from this humble beginning that the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist church was formed and an edifice build on Ward and 1st Street, Cockburn Town and one in United Estates.

After Brother Paul Ward's death, Brother Stanley Fernander was chosen as the new leader and he served up to his death in 1962. His eldest son Henry then led the church as head Elder from then until his death in 2002.

Over the years there have been a considerable growth to the organization of the Seventh-day Adventists in the Bahamas, from a district, to a Mission to a Conference and now we have a New Union Mission established in 2010. God has been good to His people.

The following pastors have been resident and non-resident over the 91 years in San Salvador and they are as follows: Resident pastors; Roy Fernander, Charles Carey, Dudley Lightbourn, Leo Rolle, Owasu Boateng and Larry Green. The non-resident pastors; Errol Tinker, Victor Cargil, Barrington Brennen, N. E. Scavella, Wendal McMillian, Jeremiah Duncombe, Leonard Johnson, Michael Toote, Lynden Williams and Paul Scavella.

In 1992, during the visit of the General Conference President, Dr. Robert S. Folkenburg to San Salvador a ground-breaking ceremony took place on the present parcel of land where this church edifice now sits. This new edifice was dedicated.... and have a present day thriving membership of 61.

This congregation of Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist Church is caring and concerned about the whole man and all are welcomed to come in at any-time for Worship and Holy fellowship. It recognizes Jesus Christ as its head and has a deep love for Him and his people. So today, we give thanks to God for His presence and powerful leading of the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist Church Family, whose motto is "The Church where the power of God is discovered in a new way everyday."

In conclusion, all Praise and Thanks be to Almighty God for the leadership of this Organization. Special thanks are extended to Pastor Leonard A. Johnson, President of Atlantic Caribbean Union Mission, Pastor Paul A. Scavella, President of South Bahamas Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and the many Officers and members of the Adventist church for our faithful support, wisdom and continued love.

Our Journey By His Grace

Message from the President of the Atlantic Caribbean Union Mission of Seventh-day Adventists

It is always a joy for me to support the leaders and members of our churches as they celebrate how God has led them over the years. Therefore, on behalf of my fellow administrators and the entire ACUM family, I am particularly pleased to congratulate the pastor, officers, and members of the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist Church on the celebration of the 11th anniversary of their new church building.

Located on the historic Island of San Salvador, this church has the unique opportunity of sharing the gospel with people from all parts of the world as well as the local population. Also, as an important part of a small island community, your lifestyle can be a very powerful witness to the community as to what a true Seventh-day Adventist Christian is like. And at this critical time in our country's history, you can be a beacon of hope to the persons with whom you come into contact.

Therefore, while you recount the blessings of God during this time of celebration, remember that there is still much to be done to prepare the world for the coming of the Lord. So may the God of compassion continue to help you get the message out to invite souls to come into the ark of safety before it is too late. My prayer is that you will prove to be faithful and effective witnesses for the Master.

Dr. Leonard A. Johnson, D. Min., J.P., Pastor

Message from the President of the South Bahamas Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Dear Saints,

On behalf of the Administrative team, I offer a word of commendation to the pastoral leadership of the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist church for the way in which you have allowed God to use you in the building up of His kingdom in San Salvador.

You have come this far by faith leaning on the Lord, and by His grace there is yet much more land to possess. The church has come through many difficult times yet God's almighty hand has kept you.

It is my prayer that the membership will continue to grow in grace and in the strength of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Congratulations and be thou faithful until every soul is gathered into the fold of safety.

Dr. Paul A. Scavella, M.A., J.P., Pastor

Message from the Speaker

Executive Secretary of the South Bahamas Conference of
Seventh-day Adventists

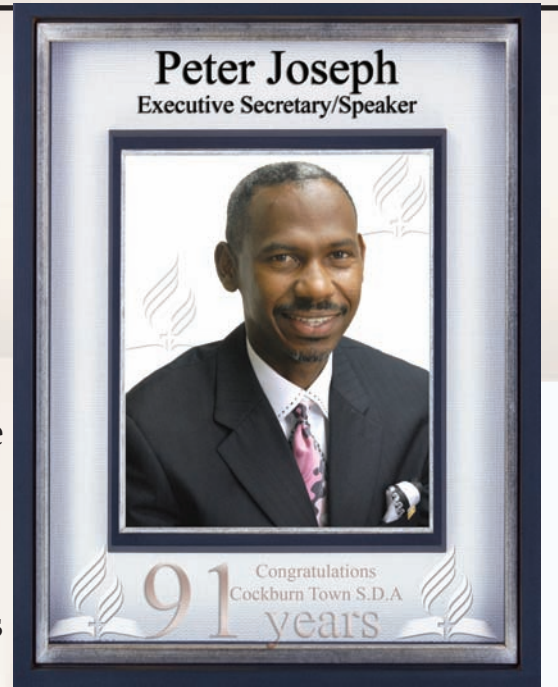

When I heard of the exploits and longevity of the Cockburn Seventh day Adventist church I exclaim " To God be the glory ! Great things He has done ! ". It is no small feat when a church celebrates ninety three years of existence . During the churches life time , many epochal events have transpired . One can think of the fall of the Soviet Union , the fall of the Berlin wall , the senseless devastation of the world trade center and of course the recent upheavals in the middle east .

In such a maze of global change this church has stood for eternal principles , preached the everlasting gospel , and espoused a lifestyle that is sustained by the presence , person and power of the Holy Spirit . The many persons that have worshiped , prayed and served God in this church have contributed to it's buoyancy and mission .

It is my hope that the Cockburn Seventh day Adventist church will remain a beacon of light in the island of San Salvador. At a time when unprecedented disasters are reducing many parts of the world to mangled rubble , this church has the opportunity to point this community to the climatic event - THE SECOND COMING OF JESUS CHRIST .

CONGRATULATIONS !

Pastor Peter Joseph, MA, J.P., Pastor

Message from the Pastor of the

Cockburn Town Seventh-day
Adventists Church

Ninety-one years ago the journey of faith began in the experience of Seventh-day Adventists on the Isle of San Salvador. Though few in numbers, the catalyst of believers resolved not to be "bought or sold though the heavens fall." These were men and women of character, who did the unthinkable to achieve the impossible, men and women who undertook the Herculean task of setting up a standard against the camp of the devil.

So, it is with humble honor I embrace the privilege bestowed upon me as the host pastor to welcome you to this momentous juncture in the life of the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventist Church members.

As we celebrate, let us bear in mind this one fact, "We Have Come This Far By His Grace". Were it not for the benevolence of God, we would not be here in 2011 celebrating God's church that was established in June of 1919. God has been faithful to us. Our theme today throws my focus to the word of God, "Ebenezer: hitherto Hath the Lord Helped us" (cf. 1 Samuel 7:12). The lack of spiritual hindsight, a grievance brought against God's church in both the Old and New Testament is often alluded to. The Israelites failed to look backwards. They did not see what really had transpired over the years. They had easily forgotten about the Red Sea, the Jordan, and even the Manna from heaven. They often forgot how God had been there for them throughout their journey.

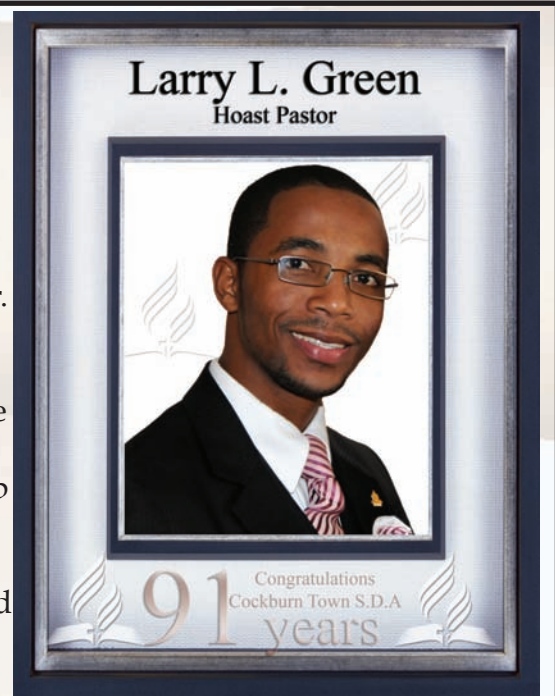

As we reflect on their journey, we must be determined not to make similar mistakes. While we must harness our vision of the future, we cannot ignore 91 years of faith driven worship, praise and dedicated service to our Father. Our faith has brought us to this point in history. As we revel in the goodness of God we cannot but praise Him because "We have come this far by His Grace." We must walk in the way of faith! My prayer is for the Lord to "Go before us in the days ahead.

It is an extraordinary delight for me to serve in San Salvador, my first pastoral district. My ministry here is nothing short of wonderful! The esteemed pleasure has been mine to share Christ through various methods. The camaraderie experience in the name of Jesus is just a foretaste of what heaven holds for us. As we stand on the crest of the ninth decennium, we can surely thank God for the faithfulness of former pastors; some of whom endured hardships in spreading the gospel. Yet, they worked assiduously to facilitate the growth of Adventism in San Salvador.

I also say thanks to the elders, leaders and members who have kept the faith and moved forward by His Grace even when there was no assigned resident pastor.

On behalf of my wife Schkara, I praise the Lord for 91 years of active ministry. May this weekend's celebrations bring us closer to God and His mission for us. Expect to experience a new blessing from God, for this is "the church where the power of God is discovered in a new way everyday."

Message from the First Elder of the Cockburn Town Seventh-day Adventists Church

“In the future, when your children ask you, ‘What do these stones mean?’ you should tell them...” Joshua 4:6-7

“Hallelujah, Glory Hallelujah!” Here we are today as a church, celebrating our church’s anniversary in grand style. It is an even more auspicious occasion because in stone, in the flesh and in the spirit we are reminded that for 91 years, Seventh Day Adventist and the sound doctrine of Adventism has been a part of the San Salvadorian community. Historically and presently, this church and its members have played an integral part in changing lives and lifestyle in this community for the greater good that is in Christ Jesus. What an awesome testimony of hope for us to give our children today. It is a testament that is evident in the stone walls of the church building, engraved in the fleshy hearts of its members and endorsed in the chronicles of heaven. Yes, we have good reason to celebrate, to rejoice and praise God continually for His marvelous Grace and his grace alone that brought us this far.

So on behalf of my family and the anniversary committee team I say Happy Church Anniversary to our pastor and his wife and to the officers and members of the Cockburn Town Seventh Day Adventist Church. To our faithful friends and other well wishers in this community, I thank you for your support through these many years leading up to this very special day.

May God bless us one and all.

Ian S. Greene, Chairman of the Anniversary Committee.

Names of Anniversary Committee members are as follow:

IAN S. GREENE, MICHELLE GREENE, ABIGAIL RALPH, MABEL WILLIAMS, VIRGINA ROMER, MICHELLE WILLIAMS, PERINO JOHNSON, ELVA MOSS AND KAREN HEPBURN

Message from the Administrator of San Salvador and Rum Cay Islands

It is indeed a pleasure for me to congratulate the officers, members and followers of the Cockburn Town Seven Day Adventist Congregation for 91 years of faithful ministry. I am confident that over the years there have been many difficult challenges that you have had to overcome, as you sought to remain faithful to the call of Christ to preach the Gospel. However, after 91 years of committed service, you are well equipped to further advance to the Kingdom of Heaven in the spirit of excellence and integrity. Your continued ministerial work in the community, especially among the youth in San Salvador is crucial and worthy of commendation.

It is therefore my pleasure to encourage you to continue to do an excellent job in your ministerial obligations. There is no doubt that your contribution to spiritual growth and moral guidance of the people of this community will help to strengthen the most important civil institution- the family.

May God continue to bless the works of your hands.

To God be the glory, great things he hath done!
So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
who yielded his life an atonement for sin,
and opened the lifegate that all may go in.

Refrain

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the earth hear his voice!

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the people rejoice!

O come to the Father thru Jesus the Son,
and give him the glory, great things he hath done!

2

O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood,
to every believer the promise of God;
the vilest offender who truly believes,
that moment from Jesus a pardon receives.

3

Great things he hath taught us, great things he hath done,
and great our rejoicing thru Jesus the Son;
but purer, and higher, and greater will be our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see.

SABBATH, APRIL 23RD., 2010

EXPERIENCE HIS GRACE GOSPEL CONCERT

MC: PASTOR DANNY MAJOR

Theme Song:

WEVE COME THIS FAR BY GRACE

Chorus

We've come this far by grace
Leaning on the Lord
Trusting in His Holy word
He never failed me yet
Oh' Can't Turn Around
We've come this far by grace

(Repeat)

Verse

Just the other day, I heard a man say
He did not believe in God's word
But I can truly say, the Lord has made a way
He's never failed me yet

Chorus

Oh' Can't Turn Around
We've come this far by grace

REDEEMED

Redeemed, how I love to proclaim it!
Redeemed by the blood of the Lamb;
Redeemed through His infinite mercy,
His child and forever I am.

Refrain

Redeemed, redeemed,
Redeemed by the blood of the Lamb;
Redeemed, redeemed,
His child and forever I am.

Redeemed, and so happy in Jesus,
No language my rapture can tell;
I know that the light of His presence
With me doth continually dwell.

I know there's a crown that is waiting
In yonder bright mansion for me;
And soon, with the spirit made perfect,
At home with the Lord I shall be.

MINE EYES HAVE SEEN

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He has loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

Refrain

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! His truth is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat;
O be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet!
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me;
As He died to make men holy, let us live to make men free!
While God is marching on.

I GAVE MY LIFE FOR THEE

I gave my life for thee, My precious blood I shed,
That thou might'st ransom be, And quickened from the dead;
I gave, I gave My life for thee, What hast thou given for Me?
I gave, I gave My life for thee, What hast thou given for Me?

My Fathers house of light, My glory circled throne,
I left for earthly night, For wanderings sad and lone;

I suffered much for thee,
more than thy tongue can tell,
Of bitterest agony,
To rescue thee from hell;
I've borne, I've borne it all for thee,
What hast thou borne for Me?
I've borne, I've borne it all for thee,
What hast thou borne for Me?
