PASTOR KEITH A. ALBURY TO BE ORDAINED

The very sacred office of ministry is affirmed and endorsed by the Act of Ordination in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. As outlined in the Word of God, the call to ministry must be evidenced by a number of visible signs, namely: the ordinand should be known by his fruits, have the gift to win souls for Christ, be able to rightly divide and proclaim the Word of God, be of good report and not given to filthy lucre. If he is married, he should be the husband of one wife, if not married, he should be beyond reproach.

Additionally, in the Seventh-day Adventist setting, a period of two years is given to internship under an experienced and balanced pastor. Subsequent to internship, the ordinand would have served as a district pastor and maintained a respectable relationship with those in authority.

Through daily surrender to the Holy Spirit, Pastor Keith Anson Albury has gone through the process and has been recommended to the larger organization (UNION) for this rite to be performed on Saturday, February 5, 2011 at 4.00 P.M. at the Centreville Seventh-day Adventist church. His wife and daughter share with him in ministry.

The ordination service will have live satellite feeds at two locations, Living Faith and Grant's Town churches. The South Bahamas Conference under the guidance and administration of the Atlantic Caribbean Union Mission, invites you to this special and sacred service. Pastor Leonard Johnson, president of the new Atlantic Caribbean Union Mission will preside. He will be assisted by Pastor Paul Scavella, president of South Bahamas Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

CONVENTION IN ELEUTHERA

The island of Eleuthera buzzed with a spirit of praise and thanksgiving on Saturday January 23rd as members and friends of the Seventh-day Adventist Church came together for their annual winter convention in North and South Eleuthera. Under the theme

"By His Grace", members of the church, opened the Word of God in Bible Study. Against the harmonious chords of the saints, the Word of God was proclaimed in power and might.

Elder Gary Jones and Children's Ministries Director of the South Bahamas Conference, Mrs. Diane Jones, facilitated the church at study as they ably unfolded nuggets of inspiration to adults and children in James Cistern.

Under the anointing of the Holy Spirit, Pastor Lynden Williams, preached on the topic, "But for Grace".

Through the searching of the scriptures and a quarterly study guide, Nurse Bernadette Rolle gave a timely presentation of God's truths.

As time progressed, the church was placed on a higher plain with Pastor Leroy Sewell as he opened the scriptures with the dual stories of Jairus' daughter and the woman with the issue of blood. To the gracious reception of the congregation, the Tarpum Bay community choir echoed their melodious strain.

As friends and members converged at James Cistern for the final service, the pastors delighted in the God of their salvation and bid members to be steadfast in their faith. Host pastor, Anastacia Ferguson, expressed appreciation to the people and God for the repast that was experienced over the weekend. Truly God has a message for His people at all times

It was a special but sad time for Pastor Keith A. Albury, the outgoing Pastor for the North Eleuthera District, as he and his family bade farewell to the church members and community. Yes, Winter Convention 2011 was a time of spiritual renewal, and fellowship. It will be etched in the minds and hearts of the Eleutherans for a long time!

Everyone is invited to attend the nearest Seventh-day Adventist Church this Saturday. Sabbath School Starts at 9:15 a.m. Divine service begins at 11 a.m. For the church listing call the Conference office at 341-4021, or visit the website www.bahamasconference.org. Come and see what blessings the Lord has in store for you.
