SOUTH ANDROS ON THE MOVE!

South Andros experienced a special blessing on Sabbath, February 19, as members and visitors of the community responded to the Spoken Word. The South Bahamas Conference president, Pastor Paul Scavella, joined the pastoral team of Pastor and Sister Terry Tanis in a service of praise and thanksgiving. The morning service broke with anthems of praise from the dynamic youth choir as four church districts converged at the New Macedonia Seventh-day Adventist Church.

The spirit of convention was evident as the congregation in Pentecostal reverence responded to the counsels of a Loving Saviour. Members accepted the admonition to restore and repair the breaches created in a world of sin. The exegesis of Isaiah 58: 1-12 laid the foundation for the surrendered hearts of the attendees.

Following the service, the members gathered at one common setting to fellowship and partake of the physical blessings of God (cf. Acts 4:32). The day concluded with a joint service at the High Rock Church where members met with the president in a personal way.

As in the early church, the members in one accord shared in a Sunday morning prayer breakfast with the exhortation from I Peter: 3. Pastor Scavella skillfully shared on the topic, Building Bricks for a Happy Home. Later, in the tranquil setting of the Blessed Hope Church, members outlined the progress of the church and sought the president's support in their effort to complete the building. This building is being constructed on land donated by one of its members who has hopes of a great harvest through various methods of evangelism. "I am looking forward to its completion," remarked Elder Amos Flowers, "and to see it filled up." Pastor Scavella inspired the members in their efforts and suggested ways of gaining support from members in New Providence and other family islands.

A well spent weekend came to an end on Sunday evening with an informative meeting of elders followed by visitation of members. Pastor Scavella lauded the members of the South Andros District for their continued faithfulness and he encouraged them to hold up the hands of the pastoral team as they soar to new heights in 2011.

BAHAMAS ACADEMY ALUMNI: TOP STUDENTS AT UNIVERSITY

Congratulations to Kenreah Brown, Cointe St. Brice, Darnell Johnson and Shervon St. Brice for making the Dean's List and Honour Roll at Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Michigan. These recent graduates of Bahamas Academy continue to excel though separated from the comfort of home and parents. The strong foundation laid by their alma mater, along with the dedication and sacrifices of their parents have prepared them for the rigors of higher education. The Atlantic Caribbean Union Mission, South Bahamas Conference and Bahamas Academy are proud of these students as they continue to study and show themselves approved unto God (cf. II Tim. 2:15).

Andrews University is an educational institution of the Seventh-day Adventist Church founded in 1874. It has seven schools and colleges including its own School of Graduate Studies and Research which supervises post-baccalaureate degrees.

Andrews University offers approximately 130 undergraduate programs and 70 graduate programs.

The proud parents of these students are: Mr. & Mrs. Roy Brown, Dr. & Mrs. Leonard Johnson and Mrs. Sharon St. Brice.
